MARTIN ARNAUD TRIBOULET

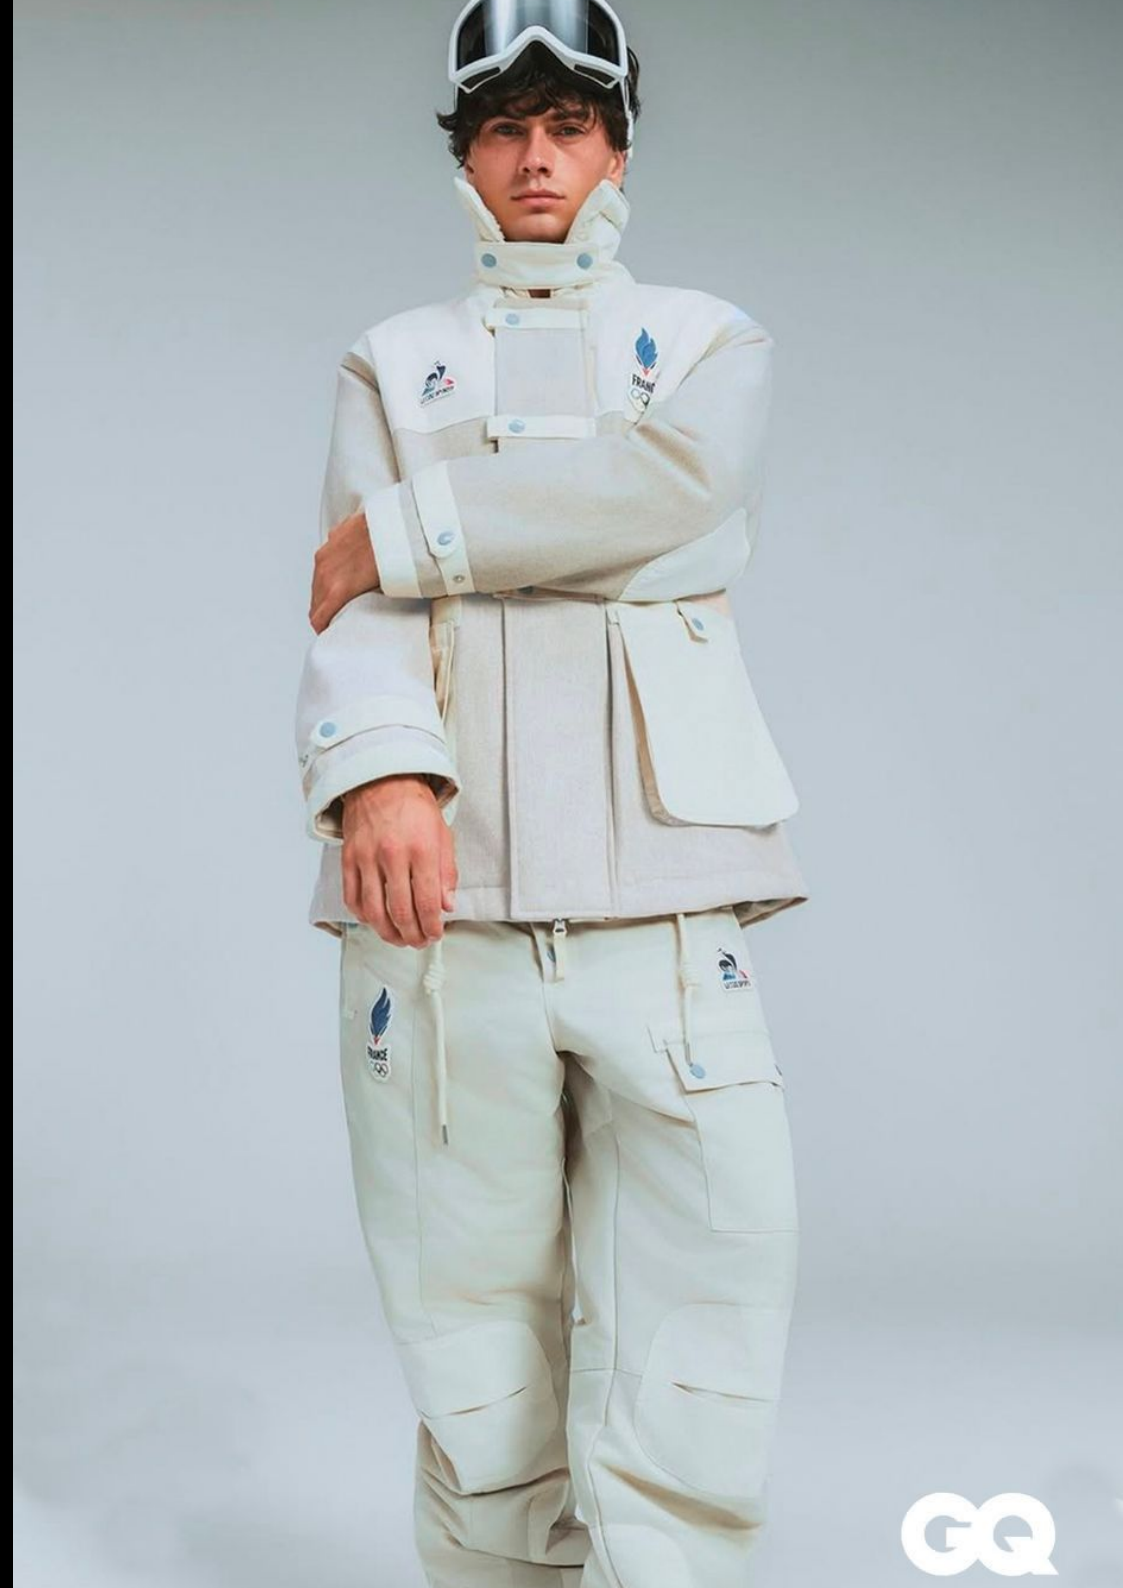

MARTIN ARNAUD TRIBOULET

ACTOR

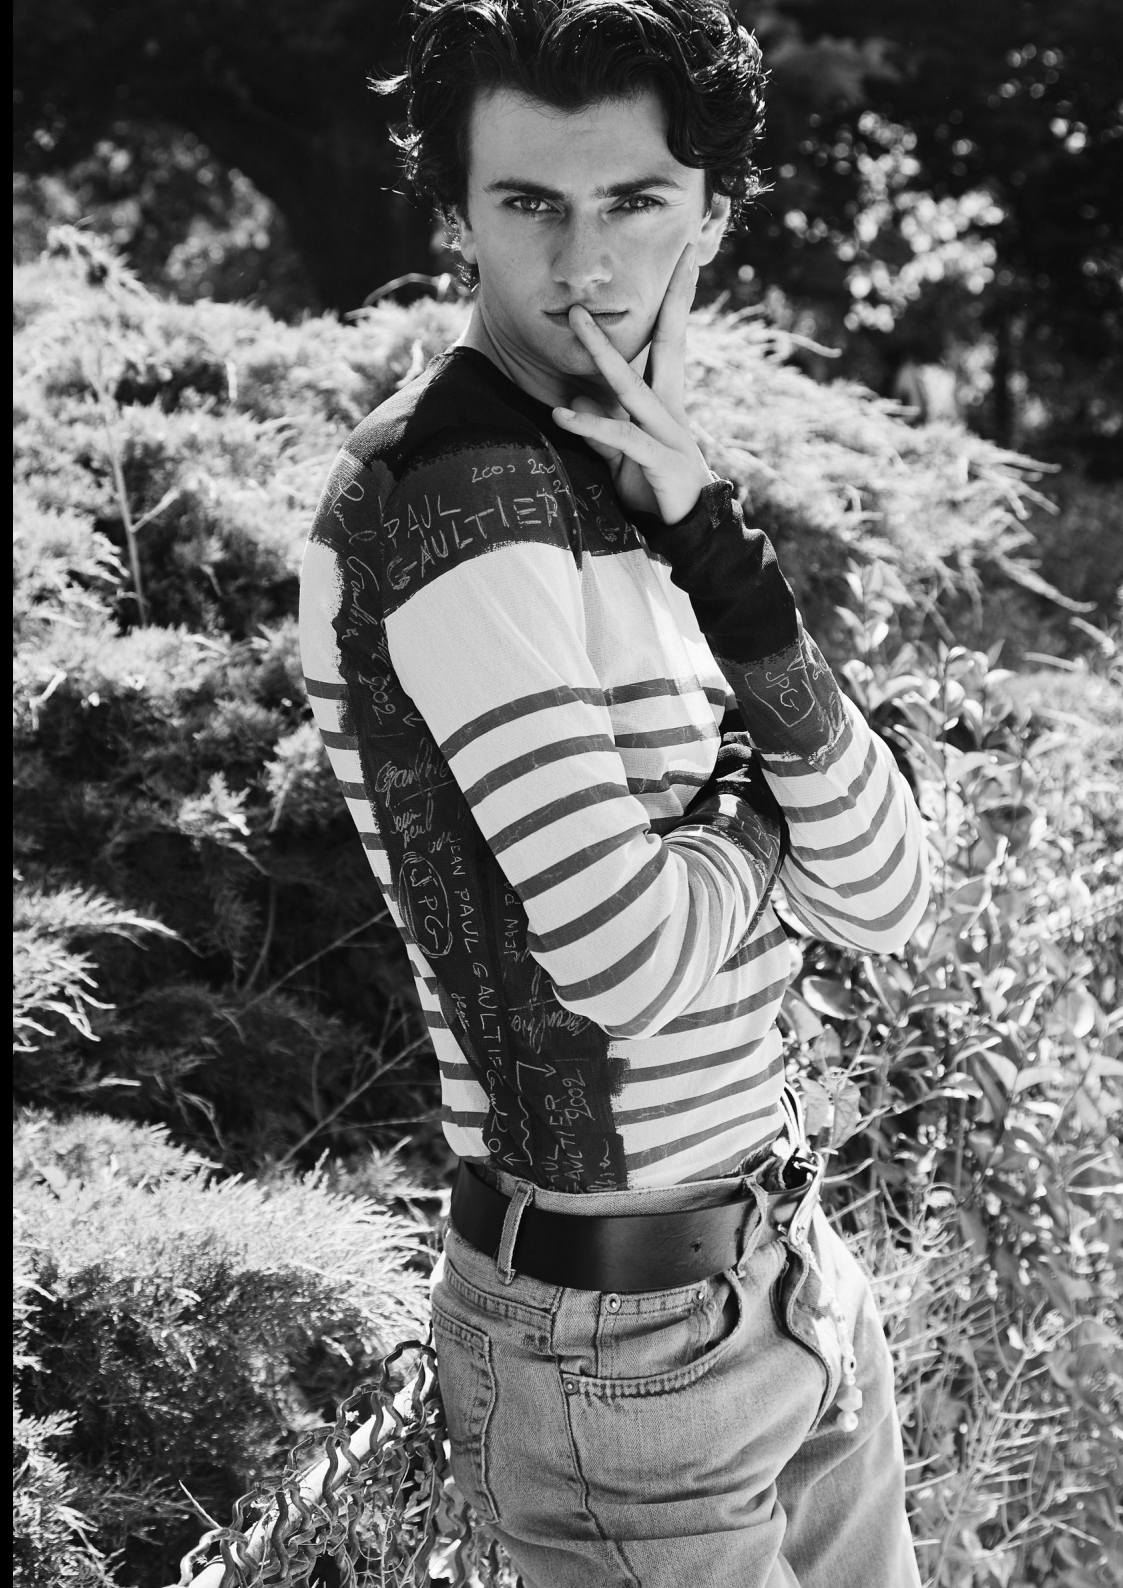

Martin, 21, began his journey in theater at age 11, quickly captivating audiences with his vibrant personality. He was the youngest in his school troupe, yet won awards for his early performances. His passion grew through high school, where he played challenging roles, including a lead in a tour of Fear and Misery of the Third Reich, and received the Jury Prize in his school's Speech Contest. Martin further honed his skills in the U.S., studying International Business and Acting. An accomplished horseback rider with a national bronze medal, Martin brings his love for fashion, animals, cinema, and travel to every project he takes on.
